THE RIVER NEWS.

Observations taken at 7 a. m.
River 17.9 on the gauge, a rise of 0.5 in last 24 hours. Wind south, a light breeze. Weather clear and hot. Temperature 81. Poll. Observer.

The Courier-Journal says: The worthless, no-account negro dock-hands and roustabouts have been giving boats considerable trouble lately by demanding exorbitant wages and refusing to work. The Tell City left here with neither deckhands nor freight and other boats are treated likewise.

The same trouble exists here at Paducah with our local packets. If steamboat owners would ignore Mr. nigger entirely and employ white labor it would not be but a short while until Mr. "Coon" would be begging for work. The Diamond Joe Line steamers for several years employed Sicilian labor on their boats at St. Louis and the company was much more successful as one Sicilian could do as much as any two "niggers" besides in hot weather they could even stand the heat better. Out loose from them and give them to understand that "there are others."

The Tennessee arrived last night with a good trip from the Tennessee river valley country. She leaves on return trip tomorrow at 5 p. m.

Dick Seebie is a happy Benedict now. Some of the boys will lose his society. It is said that Dick captured a most lovely and beautiful Tennessee belle. Dick is not so awful pretty but he is a jolly good fellow and has a host of friends who wish him a successful voyage throughout his married life.

Captain Dan Finney's Grey hound hound, a slight difference in species, but still he was a dog.

The City of Clifton arrived from St.
Louis this morning at 5:30. She has a fine trip for Tennessee river also a good many excursionists making the round trip.

The Dick Fowler cleared for Cairo on schedule time this morning.

The Joe Fowler from Evansville arrived and departed on return trip this morning with fair trips in and out.

Don't forget the grand excursion to Nashville next Wednesday on the Buttrick.

The John K. Speed is due up today from New Orleans on her way to Cincinnati.

As the crop of new wheat has commenced to move, the packets will be a little irregular in regard to schedule time.

The Dick Fowler left for Cairo this morning with 700 bags of wheat.

The Louisville Post of yesterday says: The Beaver arrived with three barges of cottonwood lumber from the lower Mississippi, and when she tried to pass the "swift place" in the Canal funnel she was completely turned around and had a close call for trouble. The life savers went out to her to be ready if needed. She left one barge of 400 hundred thousand feet and proceeded to Cincinnati.

The King City left for Tennessee river this morning for a trip of five days and nights to the mouth of the phosphate at Denison's landing.

The Wm. Towle took a tow of logs to Memphis today.

The City of Pittsburgh passed Louisville today on her way to Memphis.
She is due here next Sunday morning.

Business fairly good on the wharf this morning, but very quiet this afternoon.

The City of Memphis leaves St.
Louis tomorrow afternoon at 5:00 p.
m. for Tennessee river.

River still running with 17 feet 9

The jury in the case of Heath against the N. O. & St. L. rendered a verdict yesterday afternoon at Decatur in favor of the defendant. The plaintiff claimed that the conductor started the train at the depot before he could alight, throwing him down and injuring him. He asked for $1,000 damages.

Observationsat Random

A good turn often brings the most gratifying results. Not long ago an aged lady was traveling south and a certain conductor of Paducah, who had charge of the train, was very courteous to her. In a city where she had to wait several hours for another train, he took her to supper, made her familiar with every custom of the people around her, which she was totally unfamiliar with, being from a southern country, and in the evening escorted her around and showed her the places of interest, and finally wound up his gallant conduct by taking her to the depot and looking after her baggage and ticket. She was very grateful for his kindness, and not knowing any other way of expressing her appreciation offered him money, which he declined without feeling in the least offended, for he attributed it to her lack of knowledge about such matters in a strange country.

A short time after she left he received a letter from her son, who thanked him in the warmest terms, and included was an invitation to visit them at their home at any time. In addition the gentleman, who is a prominent railroad official, assured the conductor that should he at any time desire another position, he could get it for the asking. The conductor is more than ever convinced of the fact that kindness pays.

The Unionville correspondent of the Brookport Eagle remarks: "Rev.
John Allen was called to see Walter Burriss' sick horse one day last week." The preachers of that section seem to have some queer and rather unusual duties to perform.

Willis Ward says living at Crittenden Springs is "like life in the country." The first night he stayed at the hotel he said to one of his friends, "I know I've party night lived in the country all my life, but this is my first experience at being right in the country."

Clerks Crozier and Robinson of the Dick Fowler, have had their office screened in. This is wholly unnecessary. In all of my acquaintance with these gentlemen I do not remember having seen any flies on either of them.—Metropolis Herald.

PAINFUL HURT.

Proprietor Matthews, of the Mineral Water Hotel, on South Fourth near Norton, climbed a cherry tree about six o'clock yesterday afternoon to pick some of the fruit and in coming down missed his footing and fell, breaking his left leg, and injuring his left shoulder blade. Owing to his advanced age the injuries are very painful, and may lay him up a long time.
